Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

"The Los Angeles County Department of Community and Senior Services' Community Action Board will honor the 40th anniversary of the war on poverty and the Economic Opportunity Act, and also reflect our experience and Promise: 'Community Action: 40 Years of Helping People and Changing Lives.' The celebration will take place at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration mall area on Thursday, May 20, 2004 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This will be an educational activity designed to highlight Community Service Block Grant (CSBG) achievements and the resources that are available through CSBG funded contractors to assist low-income families and individuals to achieve economic self-sufficiency. There are over 1,122 Community Action Agencies across the country serving low-income individuals and families."

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, unanimously carried (Supervisor Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board took the following actions:

1. Proclaimed May 2004 as "Community Action Month" throughout Los Angeles County for the "Community Action: 40 Years of Helping People and Changing Lives" celebration to be held at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration mall area on Thursday, May 20, 2004;
